

$$$$

FUNDING

$$$$

For FAU degree-seeking students of all nationalities studying abroad for a semester or summer term. Scholarship awards range from $250 - $1,000.

For U.S. citizens receiving Pell grants studying or interning abroad for at least 21 consecutive days. Students receive up to $5,000 for summer and semester programs and may be eligible for an additional $3,000 of funding through the Critical Need Language Award.

For U.S. citizens interested in studying abroad during the semester, summer, or academic year in a country outside of Western Europe, Canada, Australia, or New Zealand. Awards for undergraduate students range from $8,000 for a summer program up to $30,000 for an academic year. Note that there is an internal deadline in early January.

For U.S. citizens and permanent residents studying abroad for at least 28 days. Students can be awarded up to $10,000 for a semester or summer term and may be considered for additional funding through special FEA designated scholarships including the Athletes Scholarship, Rainbow Scholarship, and more.

The U.S. Department of State's Gilman-McCain Scholarship provides awards of $5,000 for undergraduate child dependents of active duty service members to study or intern abroad on credit-bearing programs.

For U.S. citizens enrolled as an undergraduate student studying abroad in Japan for at least three months. Students on semester-long programs receive a $2,500 stipend and those on an academic year program will receive a $4,000 stipend.

Stipends of $500 are available for those who successfully apply to become a Diversity Abroad Overseas Ambassador. The money is put towards a Spring or Fall semester study abroad program. Ambassadors are expected to blog about their experiences

For undergraduate and graduate exchange students of all nationalities that demonstrate academic excellence and financial need. Awards a monthly stipend of 80,000 Japanese Yen for programs

Provides financial assistance to undergraduate/graduate students for a semester or year-long study abroad program in Japan. Scholarship will support up to the full cost of attendance to the study abroad program of the applicant's choice.

For U.S citizens and permanent resident undergraduates or graduates from all majors seeking to study in New Zealand. Must hold a minimum 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale. Awards vary from $500 to $2,000.

The Diverse International Women of Color scholarship is intended to assist women of color who are exception in their studies and in need of financial assistance to study abroad. $500 will be awarded to two students.

For U.S. citizen and permanent resident undergraduates pursuing a first-time bachelor's degree who demonstrates financial need and a desire to study abroad in Southeast or East Asia; must have 2.8 cumulative GPA or higher. Summer awards are up to $3,000, semester up to $5,000, and academic year students can be awarded up to $7,000.

For U.S. citizen and permanent resident undergraduates or graduates from all majors seeking a non-traditional language study and cultural immersion. This scholarship is fully funded.

For U.S citizens, Canadian citizens, or permanent residents seeking to fund their undergraduate, graduate, doctorate, post-doctorate, research or an internship in Germany. Award amounts vary.

BUTEX Scholarships

Open to undergraduate students affiliated with Butex Full Member Institutions (Northumbria and UCLAN). Applicants must be offered or completing application towards an exchange placement, placement takes place in calendar year of application, must be one semester, and enrolled in undergraduate course when applying for scholarship.

For U.S. Citizens who are a graduating senior or graduate student that have a desire to pursue designed study/ research projects, a graduate degree abroad, or an English Teaching Assistant Program. Programs are fully-funded.

For graduate students who are U.S citizens or a permanent resident, with preference given to those going abroad for at least 6-months or longer. Awards vary from $12,000 to $30,000. Note that there is an internal deadline in early January.

For U.S. citizens studying full-time as an undergraduate student that has been accepted to study abroad for credit. This scholarship is awarded biannually to passionate students who want to explore the world. $1,000 scholarship and 1 travel backpack.

Explore the World Travel Scholarship

For U.S citizens that have limited travel experience and limited travel resources. Students must be able to demonstrate financial need and be between 18-30 years old. Travel must be at least 7 ndm$ f -3 nby