Honorsin the Major PROGRAM DESCRIPTION Economics

Overview

The Honors in the Major Program will provide FAU undergraduate students the opportunity to achieve academic excellence beyond the level of standard course work by completing honors-level enrichment in Economics. Students interested in pursuing Honors designation in Economics are required to meet the eligibility and admission requirements noted below. Each student's Honors program of study will include 12 credit hours in Honors course work in upper-level Economics courses.

Undergraduate students who successfully fulfill all requirements below and have a final cumulative GPA of 3.25 or greater at the time of degree conferral will receive a designation of Honors in the Major on their transcript. The transcript designations will include:

Honors in Economics: [Honors Capstone Research]

Requirements to maintain Eligibility to the Honors in the Major in Economics

- Maintain good academic and ethical standing
- Maintain cumulative undergraduate GPA of at least 3.25 overall
- Maintain cumulative undergraduate GPA of 3.5 in all four honors courses.

If any of the above standards for maintaining eligibility in the program are not met, students will be advised accordingly on how to undertake remedial actions. Students will be required to bring their GPA up to the required 3.5 by the end of the program.

If students are not able to bring their GPA in the four courses back up to a 3.5 or their cumulative GPA falls below 3.25 students will be removed from the honors program but credits will still apply towards their undergraduate degree in economics.

Students will not be allowed to continue in the honors in the major program for:

- Violation of the Code of Academic Integrity
- Any grade of less than less than B in an Honors course
